

Marion Couple Married

IN a candle-light wedding Saturday afternoon, Aug. 23, in the First Reformed Church in Marion, Miss Arline Beatrice Moshier of Rochester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Moshier of Marion, became the bride of Lloyd Henry Van Haneghem, also of Marion.

The Rev. Anthony Dykstra, performed the ceremony before an altar banked with pink and white gladioli and ferns.

The bride wore white satin en train, trimmed with Chantilly lace. Her veil was edged with Chantilly lace and she carried a cascade of white gardenias and roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Milks of Rochester, sister of the bridegroom, wore yellow taffeta with a lace hat and carried a cascade of pink gladioli and snapdragons tied with pink ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Miss Clara Mouton, Miss Geraldine Moerman and Miss Helen Cook of Marion and Miss Helen Darron of Walworth, wore gowns of taffeta in pastel colors. Miss Mouton and Miss Moerman were in rose and carried yellow gladioli and snapdragons and Miss Cook and Miss Darron, in aqua, carried red gladioli and snapdragons.

Janet Van Hall of Phelps was flower girl and Donald Fuller of Rochester was ring-bearer.

Claire Van Haneghem of Walworth, was best man and the ushers were Dr. Richard Milks of Rochester, William Weaver of Walworth, Roger Boise and Robert De Nerring of Marion.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors. Miss Joyce Forsythe of Dansville and Mrs. Anna Kilpatrick of Naples, aunt of the bride, poured, assisted by Miss Elsie June Bush of Palmyra, Miss Esther May and Miss Ruth Van Haneghem of Walworth and Miss Virginia Tellier and Miss Thelma Gobeyn of Marion.

The bride attended Albany State Teachers' College.
