July 25, 1900 -

My Dear Anna C. D.,

Though at this late day - I will not fail to say a "thank you" for the lovely letter of greeting you sent me to Washington on my 80th birth day - I am sure I shall be very happy to have ^{you} remain in our home as long as a line - provided you continue to be made happy by doing so - It is a very great pleasure to me to ~~know~~ feel that you enjoy being in our home - and I know it is the same to you to feel that we love to have you with us - That we may - on the part of both - continue thus - to the end - is the sincere hope of

Your sincere & affectionate friend

Susan B. Anthony
