LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS, June 11, 1901 -

Dear ~~Mrs~~ E. Jam -

Here is a Patent order - The Postman will show you how to sign it - or if you take it to the street - she will show you how to do it - or she will pay you the money on it $9.60 - then you pay Margaret & yourself as far as it goes - and tell me - really you are entitled to two weeks pay - but make out the bill & send me here -

Aster May has not come yet - from Dubokk - It hotter than blazes here - 94° in the shade yesterday - So keep cool. I lay and do all of your sewing & patching up - the next letter will tell when we are coming home - I think -

Made is bright & popping round like a cricket - gone to you & Margaret and Geneva - when they call - J. B. J.
