"In July, 1853 a great convention was held here in Rochester which was held mainly for the free Afro-Americans from all over the North and free territories. Frederick Douglass had a plan for the FREE AFRO-AMERICANS, it was the building of a school here in Rochester. Harriet Beecher Stowe, author of UNCLE TOM'S CABIN, attended this great convention and approved the PLAN of F. Douglass for the building of a manual labor school and later add other courses to the curriculum. However, Mrs. Stowe failed to give financial . . . assistance."

AM RADIO STATION, SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION, THEATER IN BEHALF OF THE ARTS SEATING 3000 PEOPLE, HOME BASED INSURANCE CO., REALTY CO., BONDING AGENCY (particularly for those persons become involved with the LAW who need to be bonded to insure their presence in Court when their case is called.

There will be several departments within the school curriculum including the following: Languages, Domestic Science, Music, Business Administration, Cosmology, Asiatic, Spanish, Ancient, African History, School of Drama, Modeling & Fashion Fair, Barber School, Coles Collection or Historical Arts and Sciences (will be on permanent display and ready for use by research students, authors, etc.)

Plans are under way . . . to make this building the leading service center, in greater Rochester, in downtown Rochester. The . . . various facilities at the JYMA building will answer the need for housing especially for families and single persons, students, professional people, lawyers, doctors realtors etc.

The recreational facilities will be open to all peoples regardless of race, creed, color, or previous condition. The federal . . . government has been asked to assist with the securing of these facilities. The cafeteria will serve the best of food stuffs, including soul food.

This service center located in the heart of downtown Rochester, will serve the needs of the northeast, southwest, and southeast areas of the city. It is also located near the model cities area and its facilities will be used by these residents as well.

For the past 2 1/2 years the committee has been working on this project and has asked for the cooperation of the board of directors of the JYMA. In the initial moves our committee was informed (by the board and the realty people) that as soon as the plans for the new JYMA were completed --including parking facilities etc. They would be in a position to work more closely with our committee.

The local committee is composed of the following persons: Carl Burke, Howard W. Coles, Melvin Poret, William Harada, Samuel Grossfield and Robert Johnson.

For, said the Rev. Henry H. Mitchell, who was installed as Martin Luther King Professor, a little "soul" might help other churches.

"The celebration of life and of the goodness of God, the feeling of complete freedom in the presence of God and his people, and a host of other aspects of Black worship have elements of strength for the stimulation of a church now headed into a major decline," he said.

"What the White Fathers lost and the Black Fathers kept we are happy to share with the world to which Christ sent us."

So, Dr. Mitchell said, a program of Black Church Studies benefits the whole church, as well as revitalizing the Black Church.

In five years, he said, Colgate Rochester/Bexley will graduate more Black pastors than it has graduated in all its years. "The dream of the founding black seminarians will be fulfilled in a multiplied ministry to black-culture churches in need of prophet preachers and righteous revolutionaries to bring with their own togetherness their own liberation."

"THE NAME DROPPER"

We want to inform our readers about a man that is going round not taking names, but dropping names. He came to this community via Syracuse-Buffalo . . . He has a line a gas, mostly bull . . . plus, a confidence man's approach. He usually appears on the scene around election time.

He came to this community . . . about (4) years ago. He sort let it be known that he was working in some capacity for Rep. Barber Conable - N.Y. Rep; we finally investigated and met in person with the congressman, who stated in fact that this man did not work for him and never has. He worked only as a volunteer . . . the same as scores of other people in this community.

This article will serve to let all citizens know that this individual represents only himself. His name is Charles Woods and he resides at the Eastman Hotel on Chestnut Street - in Rochester, N.Y.

News from the University of Rochester

OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS
ROCHESTER, NEW YORK 14627

Dr. William H. Grier, co-author of the widely discussed book "Black Rage," spoke on "Racial Problems in the City" Monday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. in Danforth Hall on the University of Rochester's River Campus. His talk, part of a series on "Crisis in the City" sponsored by the undergraduate Outside Speakers Committee, is open to the public free of charge. Since 1966 Dr. Grier, a psychiatrist, has been director of San Francisco's Child Psychiatric Clinic (Community Mental Health Services), assistant professor of psychiatry at the University of California Medical Center, and a lecturer at the University of California School of Social Welfare at Berkeley. Previously he served for two years as a psychiatric con-

(716) 275-4127 sultant to the Detroit Public School system and a lecturer in psychiatry at the Wayne State University School of Social Work. From 1962 to 1964 he was a member of the faculty at Wayne State's School of Medicine.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, where he also received his M.D. degree, he interned at Harlem Hospital in New York City and took his residency in psychiatry at the Menninger Foundation.

His book "Black Rage," written with a fellow psychiatrist, Price M. Cobbs, was published in 1968 with a foreword by U.S. Senator Fred Harris of Oklahoma; it appeared in a paperback edition earlier this year. The book has won high praise from a number of leading reviewers. A New York Times critic, for example, termed it "profoundly disturbing," "intensely eloquent," "overwhelming."

Harriet Van Horne (former Rochester native and University of Rochester graduate), writing in the New York Post, said it "has given me the deepest insight into the mind and heart of the Negro." A Chicago Sun-Times reviewer wrote that "no one interested in contemporary America can afford to miss this book."

Harvard psychiatrist Robert Coles, in a lengthy review in The New Republic, notes that "the authors . . . are themselves black and quite familiar with all that leads to rage . . . they have written a somber and unsparring book . . . As men and as citizens they feel obliged to warn other men, other citizens; and hopefully make them feel alarmed enough, troubled enough, anxious enough to want the serious and costly changes that alone will grant us any true peace."

Who's Your Friend?

You HAVE friends (everyone has) but who ARE your friends, and HOW do you know it?

Do you SAY a person is your friend when actually you mean an ACQUAINTANCE; someone you happen to have met CASUALLY, and whom you really do not KNOW?

This is a distinction, but not a difference—and there is a big DIFFERENCE between a friend and an acquaintance, as it will soon appear.

Henry Adams said, "ONE friend in a lifetime is much; TWO are many; THREE are hardly possible. FRIENDSHIP needs a certain parallelism of life, a community of thought, a rivalry of aim."

Joseph Addison, the great English essayist, remarked that:

"Great souls by instinct to each other turn, Demand alliance, and in friendship burn."

An ACQUAINTANCE met by chance may turn out in a crisis to be either INDIFFERENT toward you, or become your ENEMY in truce; a friend when you are in NEED, is a friend indeed, and will SACRIFICE much or all for your advantage.

As Jacques Delille well said, "CHANCE makes our parents, but CHOICE makes our friends," so be sure that you have chosen WELL when you regard a person as your friend.

Baltasar Gracian said, three centuries ago, "There is no DESERT like being friendless," and Emerson remarked, "The ORNAMENT of a house is the FRIENDS that frequent."

A friend is someone to whom you can TURN with confidence when you are in need of advice and SUCCOR, to whom you can UNBURDEN yourself, and not be hesitant or ASHAMED.

For, as Thomas Fuller said, "If you have one TRUE friend you have MORE than your share."

TREASURE your friends as you would jewels, because they are more valuable.

Blacks To Head Cities?

The first black man elected mayor of a mayor city said that Negroes could be at the helm in seven U.S. municipalities four years from now.

Richard Gordon Hatcher, 36-year old mayor of Gary, Indiana, said the most likely are Los Angeles, Newark, Houston, Atlanta, Detroit, Cleveland and Gary.

The spokesman, Carl Stokes is mayor of Cleveland.

Hatcher, who was elected in a bitter 1967 battle in Gary, was in Rochester to speak at a fund raising dinner for the Rochester Southern Christian Leadership Conference. He was met at the airport by the Reverend Bennie R. Brass, Rochester Southern Christian Leadership Conference President and about 75 SCLC members and a host of friends.

"As whites flee to the suburbs, they're giving cities over to blacks and spanish-speaking people", Hatcher said. "We can't help but to elect more black mayors".

"But what is beginning to surface now is that moving to the suburbs is not solving all the problems they tried to run away from."

"People don't like living with a volunteer police department and a volunteer fire department. Maybe they'll begin coming back".

Hatcher said black candidates will be helped also by what he sees as a recent drift away from a conservative political trend which swept law-and-order candidates into office in Los Angeles and Minneapolis, and gave the Democratic and Republican mayoralty nominations to conservatives in New York City.

"Perhaps we have seen that trend toward conservatism run its course, and its course, and it is now beginning to move in another direction," he said.

"I've seen a change in the last month or so with John Lindsay's resurgence in New York."

Lindsay, who lost the Republican nomination for mayor to State Senator John Marchi in June and was then considered a certain loser, proved to be the winner in November.

Hatcher said black politicians also will be aided as the "novelty" of their candidacy wears off in the minds of white voters.

"The day's going to come when you just won't have to be a Jackie Robinson," he said.

Now, he said, black candidates must produce better political credentials than whites. He said the next few years, however, should produce a balancing process.

The dinner, a success, was held at the Rochester Chamber of Commerce. About 450 people attended and heard the mayor and his vibrant speech.

The Reverend Bennie Brass, and his staff, was commended by the national president of SCLC, Dr. Ralph David Abernathy.

He said that "the Rochester chapter, is one of the strongest affiliates of the national organization, in the country".

Ferman Adams is Co-ordinator of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference with Rochester Headquarters at 483-485 Hudson Avenue; Rev. Bennie Brass is President; James Anderson is Chairman of Board and Eugene Parker is Vice-Executive Secretary.

U OF R RADIO STATION GETS ADDED COVERAGE

Within the next few months Monroe County residents will have three, rather than the current two, FM stereo radio stations to choose from.

The newcomer is the University of Rochester's campus radio station WRUR - FM, which recently received a high power stereo transmitter, permitting it to increase its power to 20,000 watts and convert to stereo broadcasting. The increased wattage will allow the station to reach all of Monroe County; it had previously reached only those people living within about two miles of the University.

The station will continue to present a wide variety of music, ranging from classical and opera to folk music, jazz, and progressive rock, news, talk shows, and sports. It will change frequencies from 90.1 to 88.5 megacycles.

fact, forget that. Let's all clap for good old America. Don't be bashful. We are proud to be Americans.

The place was the Washington Monument, the time, Veterans Day, and the event, a "Freedom Rally" sponsored by the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) to show that silent America is behind President Nixon's Vietnam policy.

The homespun country lyrics of the Starlighters, curiously enough, drew more response from the crowd of approximately 10,000 than the rhetoric offered by the rally's "big guns" - Sen. John Tower (R-Tex.), Rep. Mendel Rivers (D-S. C.) and Rep. Donald Lukens (R-Ohio).

The signs were slightly surreal. Just to the south of the monument, a dozen or so people stood silently on an elevated wooden platform holding American flags and three posters which read like Burma Shave signs: "Communism is the Enemy/Russia is the Quarterback/Peace through Victory."

Flags were everywhere. Miniature ones sprouted from thousands of breast-pockets; ladies put them in their hair. Many wore red-white-and-blue armbands. Next to a 20-foot high American flag that provided the backdrop for the stage was a small flag representing the Republic of South Vietnam.

Lukens told the gathering it is not enough for the U. S. to be concerned with providing freedom for the people of South Vietnam. South Korea and West Germany; we must make North Vietnam, North Korea and East Germany free too. He compared our previous dealing with the Communist to a man who sits in his front room talking to a burglar, discussing when it would be convenient for the burglar to leave. "He's got no right to be there in the first place," Lukens shouted.

A southern business executive took the podium and cried out that "The south has risen again, this time under the banner of the stars and stripes." He accused those in the peace movement of spreading the "lie" that God is dead in order to subvert the country's morals. Another speaker declared there is "more goodness" in one boyscout holding an American flag than in the whole anti-war protest.

There were scattered contingents of the enemy. Longhaired Mobilization workers handed out leaflets and engaged in occasional arguments with the "loyalists." Back at the wooden platform, one man, carrying the "Russia is the Quarterback" sign, pointed at a freaky-looking person and said, "You are next, you are the next victim of Communism."

But antiwar people stayed away for the most part, as did young people. Perhaps one person in six at the rally was under 21. The 64-year-old Rivers, white hair blowing in the wind, said in a cracked and crusty voice, "There are more of us patriotic Americans than those pro Hanoi-crats. Keep up the fight. Spiro Agnew is helping us. You back up Spiro and he will continue to pour it on." Whistles, cheers.

The placards in the crowd reflected a startling political orientation. One said, "Spock has colic," another, "100,000,000 dead from Communism, will you be next," another, "Kill the Commies." People passed out buttons saying "Tell it to Hanoi," and "America-Love it or Leave it."

A pamphlet entitled, "It's Time for Reason...not Treason," called upon businessmen to stop all production that might eventually aid Communist countries.

Everyone awaited Tower of Texas, and his speech was country lickin' good, as they say. "The silent majority has become very vocal indeed," he said in deep-throated, manly tones, gazing commandingly down at the crowd. Though we all know the war is ugly and despicable, he said, those who are against it are cowardly.

BLACK IS BEAUTIFULL

Lamron Critical of Genesee Community And An Answer

Calling the carnival to raise money for the ambulance, an unequivocal flop, the Lamron, Genesee College student publication, said the village without the college would have about as much character and personality as a badly clogged drain pipe.

The editorial said: "Last Saturday's 'uptown carnival' proved conclusively that the Village of Genesee, without the college, would have about as much character and personality as a badly clogged drainage system."

The carnival was an unequivocal flop. Were it not for the efforts of several college organizations, most notably Prometheus and WGSU-AM, last Saturday's excursion into the world of small towns, fun and frolic would have amounted to little more than an unsuccessful clam-bake.

The carnival was slated to run from noon to midnight. By 11 p.m. the only activity seen was a lonely disc jockey freakin' out with a group of teeny boppers and the departing crowd from the Riviera Theatre. In fact, there was more excitement generated by the arrival of the Trailways bus from Rochester than the entire carnival provided after 6 p.m.

But the whole affair reached a happy conclusion. The Village raised enough money to buy their ambulance. It will, however, undoubtedly be used to transport the organizers of the carnival to Strong Memorial for treatment of atrophy of the imagination.

The last issue of the Lamron had this article. "Dear Editors, I would like to reply to the snide remarks about the 'Uptown Carnival' that appeared in the column October 31. The carnival was planned to pay off the $3,000 balance left on our $15,000 ambulance. A fund drive was held last year and no solicitations were made at the college. When the idea for the carnival came up, the college wanted to participate. Since 4,000 students have access to the use of the ambulance, it was felt that they would like to contribute.

So what happened - the college offered to paint store windows - no response. There were to be booths set up and down Main Street - some by college organizations and some by local organizations - only 1-2 the college organizations showed up.

But $2,200 was raised in spite of it all. No, all of the people of Genesee are not all Saints, they don't claim to be. But before chastising them for their efforts, take a good hard look at yourself and the people around you - if your eyes are open, you might be surprised.

And remember, the next time you need an ambulance or a fire truck, the man power, first aid and equipment are all volunteered. You're lucky to have it. Don't knock it. An uptown merchant who cares, Name withheld.

WILL HE SEND A HOUSING
 INSPECTOR TO MY HOUSE?

SURE. BE NICE TO HIM. SHOW HIM ALL THE THINGS THAT ARE WRONG. THEN HE WILL TELL YOUR LANDLORD TO FIX WHAT IS WRONG.

SUPPOSE MY KIDS THROW PAPER
 ON THE FLOOR. WILL THE HOUSING MAN TELL MY LANDLORD TO PICK IT UP?

NO. IT'S YOUR JOB TO SEE THAT YOUR HOUSE IS NEAT AND CLEAN INSIDE. BUT YOUR
 LANDLORD HAS GOT TO FIX
 THINGS LIKE BROKEN WINDOWS,
 LEAKY PIPES, AND ALL.
 THE HOUSING MAN WILL COME BACK TO YOUR HOUSE AFTER A FEW WEEKS TO SEE IF YOUR LAND-LORD HAS FIXED IT!

the night crawler

As any avid angler who has hunted for bait knows, "night crawlers" shrink from light. This has been found to be true of the two-legged variety as well.

That's why RG&E is cooperating with the Real Estate Board of Rochester this month in a public service project called "Light The Night."

Statistics show that when lights go on, crime goes down. Protect your family and your property by lighting the night . . . inside and outside your home.
